

Since we see that k order spines that are used to interpolate is $k - 1$ th continuously differentiable, and here in this problem, the polynomial is quadratic

- Once continuously differentiable is true
- In order to determine a twice continuously differentiable quadratic function, at most 3 points is needed, since there are three variables need to be determined.